

Thank you very much for the program "Do Not Call". We have home-office, and thus our home phone is supposed to be used for business purpose. However, it was always occupied by numerous telemarketing phone calls. We do appreciate what the state government has done on the issue.